

Katherine P. Kerrigan Scholarship Application

This scholarship was established by Thomas W. Ward and Leslie Kipp, God-daughter of Katherine from the estate of Katherine P. Kerrigan. Katherine was a graduate of Barnard College. She traveled all over Europe as a tutor for a wealthy American family, the Plankingtons, in the 1920s. She taught at a number of schools and veterans' associations, both to children and adults, on a whole range of subjects. She returned to Waverly when her father became ill. She was involved in community affairs and had great interest in public education and its improvement.

Eligibility Criteria:

- Waverly High School senior.
- Must be enrolled in an accredited two or four-year college, university or trade school in the United States.
- Write an essay (200-250 words double spaced) on what makes you an excellent candidate for this scholarship.
- Students must have a demonstrated financial need as determined by eligibility for the NYS Higher Education Services Corp (HESC) or Federal Ford Loan.
- Students must have demonstrated that they have strived to perform to the best of their ability in their academic pursuits.

Please see your guidance office for deadlines.
